You've got to be fucking kidding me.
Assholes all of you, please do not ever email me again. Your town sucks and so do all of those white people.

Dear Janis,

Your past support has played an important role in keeping community-powered radio strong in the North State, and we're grateful for your involvement. While we may have connected with you recently, we noticed that your last financial contribution to KZFR was on July 29, 2023.

Our Spring Pledge Drive is now underway and I'm reaching out to invite you to reconnect with KZFR.

Because of donors like you, we continue to provide something you can't get anywhere else. KZFR provides independent local news, diverse music programming, and a platform for community voices. Over the past year, we've expanded our local news programming, including in-house produced Zephyr News, and continued to invest in the reliability of our broadcast so we can serve our community when it matters most.

During emergencies, KZFR remains a trusted source of information, especially for listeners in areas without reliable internet or cell service. That role continues to be a critical part of our mission.

At the same time, public media funding remains uncertain. That makes listener support more important than ever.

Would you consider making a gift today?

If you're able, we'd be grateful if you considered matching your previous gift on July 29, 2023 of $10. Every contribution helps sustain the programming and services that make KZFR essential to our community.

You can donate at KZFR.org/donate, by calling 530-895-0131, or on Venmo at @kzfr901

KZFR has been on the air since 1990 because people like you choose to support independent, community radio. We hope you'll join us again.

Thank you for your past support—and for considering a gift today.

Sincerely,
Grant C. Parks
