- Ginger Nichols received a package in the mail that contained a disturbing homemade gift from two regular listeners to her program. Grant informed Bill Nichols (her father) and BOD Chair Rob Davidson. Grant also contacted AT&T and had the senders' phone number blocked. Grant also directed Office Manager Shirley McCoy to prevent these folks from entering the studio were they to show up at the station. Chris suggested that Ginger get a key to the building for easier nighttime entry. Grant committed to getting her a key.

ACTIONS TAKEN

- Chester Courtney Clever's program proposal for Abba to Zappa was approved unanimously.

GM REPORT AND GENERAL DISCUSSION

Posting of PC Agenda and Minutes on the Homepage. Grant suggested we remove the PC agenda and minutes from the homepage, keeping them only on the Agenda and Minutes page. The PC agreed.

Terming out of the PC. Grant suggested that if Chris and/or Robert wanted to continue to serve on the PC after they term out in February, we could extend their terms to the end of the fiscal year, and then, if Chris and/or Robert want to continue for another two-year term, they could do so at the beginning of the new fiscal year. As to exactly how to do this, Grant suggested we send it over to the Document Review Committee, as PC members are elected by the BOD.

Unlicensed Music on Public Affairs Programs. Robert reported back on his discussions with members of the Pacifica Foundation regarding the use of unlicensed music on public affairs programs. His recommendation was that no unlicensed music should be used on public affairs programs as the risk to the financial stability of the station are too great were legal action to be taken against the station for copyright violation.
